U.S. BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA

M. REGINA THOMAS
CLERK

DEPUTY CLERK

APPLICATION FOR PAYMENT OF UNCLAIMED FUNDS

There having been a dividend check in the above-named case issued to General Electric Leasing successor to Colonial Pacific Leasing Corp. ("Claimant") in the amount of $3,433.44 and said check having not been cashed by said payee, the Trustee pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 347 (a) of the Bankruptcy Code paid this unclaimed money to the Clerk, U.S. Bankruptcy Court, which was deposited in the United States Treasury.

The Claimant believes that it did not receive the dividend check in the above case for the following reasons:

The original payment was mailed to Attn: PO Box 230102, Portland, OR 97281-0102. That address is no longer valid. The change of address prevented delivery of the original payment..

To the best of my knowledge and belief, there is no dispute or controversy as to these funds, their availability or to whom they belong.

Claimant has authorized the undersigned to act as attorney-in-fact to recover these funds as evidenced by the attached limited power of attorney.

Claimant by and through its attorney-in-fact respectfully moves the Court to enter an order for release of funds due Claimant in the above captioned case.

WHEREFORE, Claimant asks the Court to enter an order to the Clerk of the Court to release said funds to Claimant c/o American Property Locators, Inc., Attn: Greg Griffith, 3855 South Boulevard, Suite 200, Edmond, OK 73013.

broker-oriented external financing business. The agreement reflects PBCC's ongoing strategy of focusing on fee and service based revenue rather than asset based income.

Under the terms of the agreement, the Company will transfer the operations, employees and substantially all related assets of its wholly owned subsidiary, Colonial Pacific Leasing Corporation, to GECC.

The transaction is expected to close during the fourth quarter of 1998. The closing is subject to a number of conditions however, and there is no assurance that it will close in a timely manner, or at all.

PITNEY BOWES SIGNS AGREEMENT TO SELL
COLONIAL PACIFIC LEASING OPERATION TO GENERAL ELECTRIC CAPITAL SERVICES

Stamford, Conn., October 12, 1998 - Pitney Bowes Inc. (NYSE: PBI) today announced that it has reached a definitive agreement to sell its broker-oriented external financing business, to General Electric Capital Corporation (GECC), a subsidiary of General Electric Company (NYSE: GE). In this transaction, the operations, employees, and substantially all related assets of Pitney Bowes' wholly owned subsidiary, Colonial Pacific Leasing Corporation (CPLC) will be transferred to GECC.

This agreement reflects Pitney Bowes' focus on maximizing the shareholder value delivered by each of the company's business segments, according to Chairman and CEO Michael J. Critelli, "Today's agreement is the next step in a strategy launched over 12 months ago. In that time, with the refocus of our financial services operations on supporting core products and services and fee based financing, we have generated approximately $2 billion in cash that has been redeployed in core businesses around the world, reduced consolidated debt and been used to repurchase our stock."

Mr. Critelli continued, "CPLC is regarded as a leader in broker-oriented small-ticket financing. Affiliation with a more commonly aligned company such as General Electric Capital Services should provide CPLC with new strategic momentum."

Stephen M. Bennett, president of Vendor Financial Services, the GE Capital unit acquiring CPLC, noted, "This acquisition is a key element of our ongoing strategy to expand our activity in the small ticket financing market."

CPLC, established in 1961, is based in Portland, Oregon and finances leases sourced through a network of 355 brokers and lessors throughout the country.

General Electric Capital Services Inc., with assets of more than US$250 billion, is a global, diversified financial services company with 28 specialized businesses. A wholly-owned subsidiary of General Electric Company, GE Capital, based in Stamford, CT, provides equipment management, mid-market and specialized financing, specialty insurance and variety of consumer services, such as car leasing, home mortgages and credit cards, to businesses and individuals around the world. GE is a diversified manufacturing, technology and services company with operations worldwide.

SVINTH NAMED PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER FOR GE CAPITAL COLONIAL PACIFIC LEASING

Portland, Ore. – January 2, 2000 – Jim Svinth has been named General Manager/President of GE Capital Colonial Pacific Leasing, a leader in the small ticket equipment leasing industry.

Svinth takes over at CPL after recently serving as Senior Vice President, Institutional Lending at GE Capital Mortgage Services, Inc. (GECMSI) in Cherry Hill, NJ. Among his many contributions at GECMSI was the digitization of the business' origination front-end, providing customers with on-line access to pricing, application, approval, status and funding confirmation.

"I'm excited at the opportunity of leading a business that has been so dedicated to the broker market," Svinth notes. "I look forward to working with our customers and finding ways to help them grow and succeed, so we can too."

In his role at GE Capital Mortgage Services, Svinth was the senior leader of Correspondent and Broker Originations responsible for national sales and operations. In addition, he was responsible for Cooper River Funding, a $1 billion secured warehouse-lending facility. GECMSI, which funded $11 billion in 1999, purchases loans on a flow and bulk basis ($5 million to $100 million) from intermediaries.

Prior to joining GE, Svinth held senior level positions in capital markets, risk management and product management with several leading lending institutions, including Wells Fargo (formerly Norwest), Prudential and Citigroup.

Svinth grew up in the Northwest earning his Bachelors Degree at the University of Washington and his Masters Degree at Washington State University, both in business and finance.

Colonial Pacific Leasing is a part of GE Capital's Vendor Financial Services division,
